

NANCY FAILS TO WIN

She Made 2:06 1/4 in Attempt to Break Her Record.

DRIVER DOBLE WAS ILL

Track Was Perfect, but the Mare Was Not in Condition—Weather Was Against Her.

THREE HOURS, Ind., Sept. 28.—Ten thousand people had no occasion to display their pent-up enthusiasm when the queen of the trotting turf should lower the world's record, but as many horses of the light harness saw a new world's record called to the west-hill in the most remarkable racing ever witnessed. Of course the crowd was largely drawn by the effort of Nancy Hanks to lower her own record. The track was perfect but the weather conditions were lacking. First it was known that Mr. Dobie was a very sick man—so sick, in fact, that only by administering powerful medicines hyperemically could he be made strong enough to sit in the sulky; then when the little mare came out for a warning up heat with Charles Dobie behind her, it was noticed that she seemed a trifle tucked up or lame and the cool, north-west wind, not at all to the liking of the tenderly cared for mare.

Budd Dobie Was Ill.

It was about 1 o'clock when Nancy Hanks, with Mr. Dobie holding the reins, came down past the grand stand and received a salvo of applause. The colored reinsman wore a laggard look and going around for an easy mile was seen to stop at the half as if too ill to drive the little mare home. But he had set his heart on the effort and in spite of the warning of his physician he scored down for the work, with the runner Artus on the wheel to urge the mare along. The first quarter was gone in 31 seconds, and when the half was done in 1:03, a sigh went up from the big crowd. The third quarter was done in the same time as the first, but the mare, not guided by the strong arm, was seen to falter in the stretch and the last quarter was finished in the slow time of 32 1/2.

The 2:20 pace was the sensation of the year. The six fastest heats ever gone in harness were recorded, the race record for a mare so long held by Violette and more recently divided by Prima Donna, was knocked to smithereens by May Marshall in the fourth heat and the event was finally captured by the favorite, Hal Braden, that is the fourth of Braden's got to secure a mark of 2:20 or better. George Gable's horse, with Bryan up, captured the first heat after a hot fight with Turco. There was a hottest racing ever seen in the second heat.

Will Kerr Won It.

Will Kerr taking the lead from the start and under a heavy drive home he out finished Braden, the last half being done in 1:02. Fully $10,000 was in the pool in this race.

Harriette was a hot favorite in the 2:10 trot and she did not disappoint her heavy backers. Her only competitor was Zembia and by an accident in colliding with Florida, the explanation of which to the judges would have saved her a place, she was distanced.

The free-for-all pace was a farce as might have been expected when Roy Wilkes, with not a sound foot was permitted to start. It was a walkover for Manager.

LAMPLIGHTER DEFEATED

Tammany Was Too Fleet for Walbaum's Favorite.

GREENSBORO, Sept. 28.—The match race between Marcus Walbaum's chestnut colt, Tammany, and G. Walbaum's brown colt, Lamplighter, took place this afternoon in the presence of 15,000 persons. Tammany easily vanquished the son of Speedworth, time, 2:06 1/2. Lamplighter, spirited and urged to his utmost, finished three lengths behind the winner. The match was for $2,500 a side, to which was added a purse of $5,000 by the Hudson County Jockey club, this making the total value of the purse $10,000.

Mr. Walbaum was naturally disappointed at the result of the race, and asked Mr. Daly if he would make an after match for the same stakes, the distance to be one mile and one-half miles. Mr. Daly had intended to retire his horse to the stud in the event of his winning today's match, but he generously gave up this purpose, for a time at least, and agreed to give Mr. Walbaum another chance at his horse. Tammany will again lamplighter five pounds in the next race.

GREENSBORO, Sept. 28.—First race, five furlongs—Bullington won, Bear-gard second, Alphant third; time, 1:28 1/2.

THE STE. CLAIRE.

Detroit's New and Elegant Hotel—Some of Its Advantages.

At the corner of Monroe avenue and Randolph street, Detroit, in the heart of the city and but a few squares from the City Hall, is the new Hotel Ste. Claire, recently erected by the Brush Estate. The advantages of its location can be seen at a glance. It is close to railway depots and wharves, adjoins the theaters, and is near the great crossing of street car lines, the Campus Martius. The hotel is absolutely fire-proof, and its sanitary arrangements are simply perfect. It is a modern edifice, in the construction of which every new improvement has been utilized. Its projections had it in mind to make the Ste. Claire one of the most elegant and cozy hotels in the West, and this idea has been fully carried out. The interior is beautifully finished in marble, with mosaic floors. All the rooms are steam heated, and provided with hot and cold water. Every appointment is of the best quality. Though centrally located, the hotel is quiet and homelike. Rates are reasonable—the hotel is on the American plan. The landlord of the hotel is Mr. Wm. T. Beyer, whose long experience in his business is a guarantee that the superior advantages of the hotel will be supplemented by the best efforts of all connected with its management. When in Detroit, no better place to stop than at the Hotel Ste. Claire. For rates, see advertisement in this issue.
